

Dont Mention The Wars: A Journey Through European Stereotypes

An entertaining exploration of the truth behind European stereotypes - The Irish Times From the bailouts to the Euro-crisis, from the rise of Frau Merkel to the dalliances of the French presidents, Connelly does a brilliant job skewering the lie and truths of European stereotypes. A lot has happened in the nearly five years since Tony Connelly published the first edition of Dont Mention the Wars to great acclaim. In this revised and updated edition, Connelly revisits every chapter and explored the news and the rich parade of events that have happened in that time. Reviews: Dont Mention the Wars is a sharply written meditation on the origins of various peculiarities associated with our European neighbours. - The Sunday Times It is a fascinating, not to say ambitious, journey, and one worth taking. - Des Kenny
