

The CEO Secret Guide to Managing and Motivating Employees

Are your employees happy and productive? Is your business competitive and growing? CEOs have long needed a straightforward guide to managing and motivating twenty-first century employees. Here is that book. The CEO Secret Guide provides a six-part method to help CEOs solve their most pressing issues surrounding people management and motivation. Award-winning best employer CEOs share their experience and offer advice on a wide range of topics, covering everything from vision and values to performance and KPIs. There are case studies covering some of Australia's best employers, including Starlight Children's Foundation, Birdsnest and BRW Best Place to Work winner, UM Australia. If you are a CEO who wants to build a great place to work that will attract and retain highly production people and deliver exceptional business outcomes, The CEO Secret Guide is a must read. Claire Harrison is the CEO of Harrison Human Resources and has more than 20 years of experience in people leadership and management. Claire passionately believes that without talented and motivated people an organisation will not succeed. The CEO Secret Guide is Claire's first book. It is inspired by the great, good and not so good CEOs that she has encountered over her career. This book is for the CEOs who aspire to build a happy workplace and a remarkable business.
