

The Jews in Canada (Wynford Books)

Ethnic groups in Canada may be successful, persecuted, cohesive, or endangered; only Canadas Jews appear to embody all of these characteristics simultaneously. Canadian Jewry is enduringly fascinating, worth knowing about because the community is an archetype of multiculturalism as it confronts the difficulties and advantages of ethnicity in the modern world. By examining the achievements of the community, and the challenge of its attempt to survive the exigencies of modern life, The Jews in Canada clarifies not only the evolution of Canadas Jewish community but also the evolution of ethnicity in Canadian society.
