

Armed Forces, Soldiers and Civil-Military Relations: Essays in Honor of Jurgen Kuhlmann (Schriftenreihe des Sozialwissenschaftlichen Instituts der Bundeswehr)

It is an honor for us to introduce this collection of essays, which is dedicated to an old friend and colleague who is no longer with us. It is an honor, but also a pleasure because we feel like continuing a dialogue with Jurgen; one that has never broken down over the years, revisiting and recalling the different places and occasions where we met, discussed, collaborated and had fun. We, that is, Giuseppe Caforio, Christopher Dandeker and Gerhard Kummel who have been friends and/or colleagues of and research collaborators with Jurgen and who represent three prominent institutions and organizations with which Jurgen worked, felt that this book is something we owe to Jurgen and we are grateful that many people who at different times and at different places had contact with Jurgen and his work were willing to contribute a chapter to this anthology. Most of Jurgens studies, professional work and research activities took place at the Bundeswehr Institute of Social Sciences (SOWI). Jurgen, born in 1938, had joined the Bundeswehr in 1957 and had already worked at the SOWIs predecessor institution, the Scientific Institute for Education in the Armed Forces from 1971 onwards after having finished his university studies. Since this institute was renamed SOWI in 1974, Jurgen belonged to the first generation of researchers that worked at the SOWI.
