

Midnight in Butetown

Life for Felisa and Henna is hard but enjoyable. They can please themselves doing pretty much what they want when they want. Both are single mothers, surviving on benefits and living in Wales. Situated just round the corner from one another, they see each other daily whilst their children play contentedly together. Every few weeks they manage to save up just enough to enable them to go out and let their hair down at the local nightclubs. Enjoying their femininity and the attention they receive, a steady flow of suitors take them back to their homes after each night of dancing and drinking but few are seen more than once. That is until they meet Festus and Jeromy and then Elroy and Dan.

Life is about to change beyond all recognition, but who do they choose? The suave, smoothing-talking Italians or the reggae-loving West Indians?
