

The Great War 1914-2014: Of the 100 years war

The historical issue that concerns us, is the origins, causes and effects of the two larger conflagrations that has undergone the humanity, namely, the so-called First World War and the so-called Second World War, that was thrust upon in the world and set fire to Europe, Asia, Africa, Oceania and the rest of the world. America, explicitly the United States, has not felt physical destruction of their cities, nor was the scene of the battle fields in both wars, but it intervened decisively in his development with definite affectations in their final. The balance of power both in the first war, and with greater influence in the second, inclined to consummate the defeat of Germany on both occasions. Without the competition from the United States of North America, whose enormous industrial and military capability was put to the service of the coalition of 49 countries against Germany, and in its highest percentage in support of the Soviet Russia (the USSR!), the triumph in the second great world war have never been possible. But, ?the triumph of whom? All of this has its causes, its explanation and its consequences. It is difficult to conceive the world today without taking into account the terrible event that was called Second world war (1939-1945) and almost impossible to understand this without thoroughly studying the origins of the first world war (1914-1918). And, in both cases, their protagonists. Two global conflagrations which left more than a hundred million dead cannot be taken lightly. You have to analyze them, study them and draw conclusions that can make us understand them, to know their origins, their causes and effects; and that all this may have value for the future. An uncertain future, since the reality is that the first great world war began in 1914, and the wars end did not bring an end in 1918; the surrender and defeat of Germany was only a waiting compass that gave rise to the great Second World War; and, once again, unconditional accountability of Germany and Japan imposed by Allies in 1945, was not ended with all wars, on the other hand, gave rise to the cold war, the war in Korea, the Viet Nam war, Egyptians and Arab States against the imposition of Israel for appropriating of Palestine to form his Jewish State; the Revolutionary War of Cuba, that turned this country into a satellite communist dictatorship of the USSR; in Afghanistan, which was conceived against Iraq in order to take control of its oil; the current massacre committed by Israel against the Palestinian people in the Gaza Strip, the last piece of land that is left to the Palestinians; the current war against Islam. THIS WAR IS NOT FINISHED. IT HAS LASTED FOR ONE HUNDRED YEARS: 1914 TO 2014. This is The one hundred years war. And there are no indications that is going to end, until certain plans are met. Jews have an unparalleled opportunity to throw the world a eulogy of his achievements, and tell the world: see all what the Jewish wit can be do, everything what can be achieved for the benefit of a village, when it is given wide freedom to manifest itself; When can show their strength of will and his desire without boundaries in pursuit of a goal. We thus reach the frightening conclusion that the Messianic New World Order is about to arrive. It all begins in Syria. The last remnants of Palestine that prevent the establishment of the great Israel kingdom have its days numbered. The fate of mankind hangs by a thread, and everything will depend on what happens in the near future in East Jerusalem. ?The New World Order is here!
